

Teacher Comments/Feedback

(Comments from the 2006-07 school year)

- The interaction with the game helped them apply what they had learned. (Sibley Elementary teacher)
- It's so important for kids to have this information so they know what to do if a situation ever arises. (Stocking Elementary teacher)
- It is a great program and explained in a very child friendly way. (Sibley Elementary teacher)
- I thought the video was a great visual for the kids. They got a chance to hear and see someone of the same age handle the difficult problems many kids face. (MLK Elementary teacher)
- Would recommend the KIDZ Have Rights program to all children. (Campus Elementary teacher)
- Highly effective and helpful to not only the students but the classroom teacher. (MLK Elementary teacher)
- Interesting, my girls just got done telling me about another 5th grade boy touching them inappropriately. (MLK Elementary teacher)
- Presentation was very informative. (MLK Elementary teacher)
- This was very nicely presented in a way that kids can understand, it was straightforward, but done in a non-threatening way. Thanks so much!!! (East Elementary teacher)
- I was impressed with your presentation and lesson. (East Elementary teacher)
- You handled a difficult topic fantastically with easy to understand language. (East Elementary teacher)
- The program is wonderful. Thanks for coming. I have 2 students that I am aware of that have been abused. (East Elementary teacher)
- Kids need to know the various touches. (West Godwin Elementary teacher)
- Bookmarks were a nice tool to give to the kids. (West Godwin Elementary teacher)
- Very helpful to have kids brainstorm who safe adults in their lives are. (North Godwin Elementary teacher)
- Nice mix of discussion, video and activities. (North Godwin Elementary teacher)

- So important for children! (Campau Park Elementary teacher)
- Great info. (Palmer Elementary teacher)
- It was all helpful, I think emphasizing that sometimes uncomfortable touches from peers and slightly older peers is also wrong. We already had students wanting to talk to us before the video and presentation were even over. (Shawnee MST Elementary teacher)
- The video was a useful way to explain what kids should do in a similar situation- better than having an adult explain. I think it's a very important, appropriate topic. Several kids in my class have had similar experiences. (Aberdeen Elementary teacher)
- The video was excellent. Great program! (Coit Creative Arts Academy teacher)
- This was a non-threatening presentation allowing students to be making evaluative decisions on touches and sharing the feeling openly. Well done. (North Park Elementary teacher)
- Very important information. (Southwest Community Campus teacher)
- Great informative presentation for the students. (Southwest Community Campus teacher)
- Everything was great- from the charts to the discussion to the video. The video was excellent- The children took the information very seriously. Children need to hear this information in today's world. (Kent Hills Elementary teacher)
