

Understanding Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACE's)

Training Objectives:

- Gain an understanding of what ACE's are and how they impact the early brain development
- Understand how ACE's impact ongoing physical and mental health through adulthood
- Learn how the community can help build resilience in those impacted

Target Audience:

Parents, social service providers, legal providers, school personnel/teachers, churches, those who work with or volunteer with children, law enforcement

Duration:

1-3 hours. This training is customizable to meet the specific needs of the audience.

Location:

This training is available by request at your facility.