

Family Advocate

Organization Summary

Children's Advocacy Center of Kent County works to assess and support child victims of suspected sexual assault and educate the community to prevent those assaults. Since 1993, the Center has been the primary provider of all services needed to investigate, help children heal from, and prevent child sexual abuse in Kent County. Through a multidisciplinary-team approach, our core staff works with on- and offsite partners in mental health, children's protective services, law enforcement, and medical examiners. Our core staff is committed to our clients and our team, ensuring this trauma-rich environment is also a place of hope, self-care, and collaboration. We seek candidates who reflect the rich diversity of Kent County and join us in our commitment to our clients and our team.
